Request for a Proposal: Web Design

The Museum of Lifestyle & Fashion History is a non-profit 501c3 organization established in 1999. This Palm Beach County, Florida non-profit organization presents exhibits, an annual family day, school field trips and weekly art and food tours.

This request for a proposal is for bids to re-design the museum's website.

<http://mlfhmuseum.org/>

The re-design includes enhancing the website layout, upgrade type fonts used for each web page's header; and change the design of each page, display of photos and graphics and add video clips provided by the museum. Use of photos and video will be provided by the museum.

The bidder's proposal must include cost itemization and timeline for re-designing the website. The bidder must also include their history with web design, names of team members and their experience and list at least 2 references.

Proposals are: due January 31, 2017
